Response to Armed Assailant for Faith Based Organizations

Date: September 24, 2019

Time: 6:00pm – 8:00pm

Registration: www.eventbrite.com/e/response-to-armed-assailant-for-faith-based-organizations-tickets-68613070541

Location: Lancaster County Public Safety Training Center

Address: 101 Champ Blvd, Manheim, PA 17545

Who should attend:

This training is designed to improve the knowledge of leadership of faith based organizations and all general attendees for response to an armed assailant incident. It will provide the basis for developing or improving upon response plans and training programs. People receiving this training are less likely to freeze if ever confronted with such a horrific event.

Learning Objectives:

This training will provide the participants an opportunity to:

- Gain insight into lessons learned from past armed assailant incidents.
- Learn the immediate actions to take in order to minimize loss of life
- Learn about the role of responding law enforcement and precautions to take by employees in an armed assailant incident.
- Be aware of hardware and administrative changes to make at your facility to facilitate the response to such an incident.

Presenter:

Mr. George Giangli,

Chairman, Business, Industry and Infrastructure for the South Central PA Task Force
